Excel Ladies Aid

The January meeting of Excel Ladies Aid was held at the home of Mrs. S. B. Gullekson. Being the annual meeting officers for 1935 were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Wetheral; Vice President, Mrs. C. R. Gullekson; Secretary, Mrs. J. Barker; Treasurer, Mrs. S. B. Gullekson; visiting committee, Mrs. R. Bishop and Mrs. C. Gullekson; sewing committee, Mrs. Gilbertson and Mrs. E. Gullekson; missionary committee, Mrs. Littleford and Mrs. Banks; flower and gift committee, Mrs. Church; auditor, Mr. Wetheral. A vote of thanks was given to the retiring president Mrs. Church, who has held the office for the past six years and who has done much good work.

Reports from all committees were heard, and letters of acknowledgment were sent to those who helped with the Christmas tree fund.

The February meeting was held at the home of Mrs. E. L. Gullekson, with a fair attendance. Roll call was answered by a verse from the Book of Romans.

Mrs. E. L. Gullekson gave an unusual but interesting reading on greetings between

WEDDING

DIAL—McINTOSH

Rev. Canon E. Pierce Goulding officiated at the ceremony at which Edna Barbara McIntosh of Edmonton, formerly of Winnipeg, became the bride of Mr. Herbert Edgar Dial of Calgary, son of Mr. Herbert Dial and the late Mrs. Dial of Oyen, in Edmonton on the evening of Ash Wednesday. The wedding took place in All Saints' Pro-Cathedral.

Navy blue, with touches of fresh white in its trimming, formed the bride's smart spring ensemble. Navy straw fashioned her chic hat, and her flowers were crimson roses in a corsage bouquet. Miss Margaret Moorhead of Edmonton, also wearing a costume of navy blue and white, was the bride's only attendant. Mr. Edwin Hay attended the bridegroom.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served in the Peacock room of the Shasta, where 16 guests were received. After a honeymoon in the southern part of the province, Mr. and Mrs. Dial will reside in Calgary.

friends throughout the year in Abyssinia and other countries. Another reading of interest, given by Mrs. Gilbertson was "A Lesson in Service". An animal guessing contest was held which was enjoyed by all; Mrs. Horace Bishop giving the prizes which were won by Miss Doris Gullekson and Mrs. Bakken.

The March meeting was held at the home of Mrs. H. L. Bishop. Roll call was answered with a verse from the Book of Hebrews. Mrs. S. B. Gullekson gave a most interesting reading on the Life of Solomon, and Mrs. Wetheral read a short sermon and poem.

The next meeting, which will be a missionary meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. Gullekson.

Excel Items

A rink from Excel with the following personnel: D. Bishop, skip, Joe Vanstone, Ernie Vanstone and A. Willcock attended the Cereal bonspiel, and won fourth prize in the grand challenge.

A party of young people enjoyed an afternoon of skating at Bowen's dam on Sunday.

A number of young people were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwards on Wednesday evening, honouring their son Jerry and daughter Joan. The early part of the evening was spent in games, then after a delightful supper, dancing was indulged in until the early hours of morning. Music for dancing was played by the guests.

Our old friend "Herb" Dial came in today to show us one of the new Bank of Canada one dollar bills. (He had his fingers crossed—so we could not keep it.) We would like someone to come in and show us a flock of them and then leave them with us.

About Town and Country

Miss Winnie Love returned home last Sunday after spending a vacation in Winnipeg and Saskatoon.

At the quarterly meeting of the ladies' contract club held at the home of Mrs. M. Johnson, Mrs. C. S. Wright and Mr. S. A. Miller were the winners of the first prizes. Consolation prizes went to Mrs. C. L. Dunford and Dr. J. P. Kerr.

Mr. C. H. Langridge, returned to the staff of the Bank of Toronto here, last Friday.

Rev. Donald Macgregor of Cereal, who was scheduled to conduct a morning service at Oyen United church last Sunday, was unable to get here on account of snowbound roads.

Rev. E. F. Kemp, who was an Edmonton visitor last week, returned home to Oyen Tuesday morning.

The W. A. of All Saints church will hold a tea, sale of home cooking and house plants in Cooper's store on Saturday, April 20.

Oyen athletic club is making satisfactory progress in the matter of getting equipment. A wrestling mat, set of gloves, punching bag and a rowing machine have been acquired and the club hopes to purchase a set of parallel bars in the near future. Under the auspices of the club, a St. Patrick's dance will be given in the Masonic hall on Friday, March 15, when your patronage is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Snell, pioneer settlers of this district, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding on Monday, March 11, at the home of their daughter Mrs. W. B. Kramer.

BEER IS BEST

The tonic tang which makes beer ever welcome is imparted by the hops. When combined with barley-malt the hops encourage appetite and good digestion.
